

Student Helplines

Need more advice? There is help!

General

<http://www.dmu.ac.uk/dmu-students/the-student-gateway/student-and-academic-services.aspx>

www.nus.org.uk

www.nusconnect.org.uk

www.crimestoppers-uk.org

www.citizensadvice.org.uk

www.homeoffice.gov.uk

www.britishcouncil.org

Phoning the Police

Feel safe phoning the police with information on a crime on Freephone line: 101 or 01162222222.

You will remain anonymous. <https://www.netmums.com/>.

Personal

www.victimsupport.org.uk: log on or call the Victim Support. Line: 0845 3030900.

www.met.police.uk/sapphire: provides a one - stop shop for all victims of sexual assault.

www.suzylamplugh.org: a national charity on how to be safe at home and university. Call: 020 8392 1839.

Vehicle

www.soldsecure.com: a non-profit company that produces car security equipment, backed by police.

Call: 01327 264687

Drugs

www.talktofrank.com

You've seen the ads. Provides all you need to know on drugs, alongside stories from recovering users.

Helpline: 0800 776600.

Housing

<https://www.sulets.com/who-we-are>

accommodation@dmu.ac.uk

www.studentaccommodation.org

www.shelter.org

www.nus.org.uk/en/Campaigns/The-Lock/Your-Home/Rental-scams www.nus.org.uk/en/Campaigns/The-Lock/Your-Home/Your-House

www.nus.org.uk/en/Advice/Housing-Advice

Mobile phones

www.immobilise.com: how it works and what you should do to block a stolen phone.

Cyber crime

www.actionfraud.org.uk: advice on the simple steps you can take to protect yourself against fraud.

www.cardwatch.org.uk: the UK banking industry, police and retailers working together to fight card fraud.