8. Nature of Assessment

- (a) A student must satisfy the Assessment Board that he has an adequate knowledge of the English Legal System. Such assessment will take the form of an online, multiple choice, "The English Legal System Exercise" comprising thirty multiple choice questions. A student must achieve a mark of 40% or above in order to pass, but the English Legal System Exercise will not count towards the final grade of the award and will be graded on a competent/non competent basis only. This assessment will not carry any credits towards the final award.

This will take the form of an online test, "The Legal Research Exercise", in such form as the Assessment Board shall from time to time approve. A student must achieve a mark of 40% or above in order to pass but the Legal Research Exercise will not count towards the final grade of the award and will be graded on a competent/non competent basis only. This assessment will not carry any credits towards the final award.
- (c) A student must be assessed in each of the Foundation Modules of Legal Knowledge by a three-hour unseen written Examination (including 15 minutes recommended reading and note-taking time). All Examinations will be closed book and students will only be allowed to take in "permitted materials". A list of permitted materials will be distributed to the students prior to the Examinations. Students must obtain a pass in each written Examination in order to pass the Graduate Diploma in Law.
- (d) A student must be assessed in an eighth module which shall be specified by the Assessment Board or in an eighth module chosen from such modules as shall be approved by the Assessment Board known as the "Project" module. Students must achieve a mark of at least 40% in this element of assessment for this module.
- (e) The pass mark in each Examination and written assessment is normally 40%. Students (other than partial exemption students) may exceptionally be compensated in one Examination or one element of the Project module at a lower mark not below 35% on the basis of tutors' reports, strength in other modules and any other relevant, documented information. Any written work and reports must be available for inspection by the External Examiners. A student may only be compensated once during the Graduate Diploma in Law. The Assessment Board may compensate a marginal fail of a part time student in accordance with this paragraph at the end of either the first year or the second year of the Graduate Diploma in Law.

All such reasons must be submitted in writing and supported by third party evidence as detailed in Regulation 19(c).
- (i) The Project must be submitted to Turnitin, an electronic plagiarism and copying detection device (instructions for which will be supplied to students). The relevant written assessment will not be marked and will be regarded as a late submission unless this happens by 12 noon on the relevant submission date.

- (b) A student referred in any Examination or the Project may re-sit the Examination or Project for a final attempt.
- (c) In deciding whether or not to permit a student to re-sit under this regulation, the Assessment Board must take into account the extent of the failure of the referred Examination or Project, the results in other modules (including the result of a referral in another module) and other relevant considerations.
- (d) For part time students this regulation is subject to Regulation 21.
- (e) The Assessment Board may impose on a student permitted to re-sit under this regulation any requirements regarding attendance and the submission of written work, compliance with which will be prerequisite of the permission to re-sit.

17. Maximum Number of Attempts

- (a) For the avoidance of doubt, no student may sit any assessment in any module on more than a maximum of three occasions. A sitting of the Examination at any institution counts for this purpose, but an attempt which is not completed for sufficient cause does not.

- (b) A full time student must complete satisfactorily all the assessments for the Graduate Diploma in Law within three years of initial enrolment.
- (c) A part time student must complete satisfactorily all the assessments for the Graduate Diploma in Law within four years of initial enrolment.
- (d) A partial exemption student must complete satisfactorily, all the outstanding assessments for the Graduate Diploma in Law within the time period stipulated in either 17(b) or 17(c) above, whichever is applicable to that student.

18. Limit on Marks

A student taking any Examination and/or Project for a second or subsequent time cannot be awarded a mark in excess of 40% in that Examination and/or Project.

19. General

- (a) If in exceptional circumstances the Assessment Board is satisfied that any of these regulations operates unfairly in relation to any student, the Assessment Board may take such decisions as appear to be necessary to achieve the fair operation of the system of assessment prescribed by these regulations. This regulation does not apply to compensations.
- (b) Notice of any decision of the Assessment Board under paragraph (a) above, and of the exceptional circumstances of the decision, must be given to the Professional Bodies by the Chair of the Assessment Board.
- (c) If a student believes that his or her performance in any one or more assessment has been or may be adversely affected by illness or other good cause, it is the student's responsibility to bring such matters to the attention of the Deferrals Panel, supported, where appropriate, with documentation. The student must complete the appropriate form, "Request for Deferral of Examinations and/or Project on Grounds of Extenuating Circumstances", and submit the form as directed together with supporting evidence to the Graduate Diploma in Law Programme Administrator. Claims of extenuating circumstances which are not substantiated by independent evidence from a relevant source will not be considered. The type of third party evidence required will depend on the reason for the request and could include medical evidence or a letter from an employer. If a request is posted it is strongly recommended that a Certificate of Posting from the Post Office, or equivalent for overseas students, is obtained. The student must communicate the extenuating circumstances and independent evidence as soon as they are known and, normally, prior to the relevant submission date if the application relates to a written assessment and prior of the date of the Examination if the application relates to an Examination. The Deferrals Panel is responsible for considering the extenuating circumstances and for coming to a decision. If the independent evidence is accepted by the Deferrals Panel the student will be deferred in the assessment(s) affected. The Assessment Board and Deferral Panel do not have power to increase the mark in the assessment(s) so affected.
- (d) Unless Regulation 17(e) applies, however, a deferral may not be granted under (c) above where, as a consequence, the student would not be able to satisfy Regulation 17(b) or (c).
- (e) Where the Assessment Board wishes to grant a student a deferral of one or more of the assessments but as a consequence of the deferral the student would be unable to satisfy Regulation 17(b) or (c) above, a deferral may only be granted in accordance with Regulations 17(e) to (g).

20. Disqualification from Sitting the Written Examination

A student is not eligible to sit the Examinations if attendance is deemed unsatisfactory by the Management Board. For the avoidance of doubt, attendance at 75% or fewer of all available study sessions will normally be considered by the Management Board to be unsatisfactory, in the absence of documentary evidence explaining the relevant attendance to the satisfaction of the Management Board.

21. Two Year Courses: Proceeding from Year One to Year Two

A student taking a two year Graduate Diploma in Law may not proceed to year two of that Graduate Diploma in Law until he/she has passed at least three of the four Examinations and all the written assessments to be taken in year one.

22. Transfers

Transfers are not normally permitted on the Graduate Diploma in Law. Students should normally complete the Graduate Diploma in Law at the institution where they originally enrolled on the course.

23. Students studying the Graduate Diploma in Law by part time mode may normally only transfer to another Graduate Diploma in Law course provider where the following criteria are satisfied:

- (i) they have successfully completed all assessments on the first year of the Graduate Diploma in Law; and
- (ii) there are genuine mitigating circumstances which justify the transfer; and
- (iii) they have obtained the permission of the Professional Bodies.

24. Students studying the Graduate Diploma in Law by part time mode who are unsuccessful in completing year one of the Graduate Diploma in Law may not transfer onto the full time mode. Such students are not prevented from starting the full time mode in accordance with Regulation 28, below.

25. Students studying the Graduate Diploma in Law by full time mode may transfer onto the part time mode where the following criteria are satisfied:

- (i) they are transferring onto the part time mode at the same institution at which they have been studying the Graduate Diploma in Law by full time mode;
- (ii) there are genuine mitigating circumstances which justify the transfer; and
- (iii) they have obtained the permission of the Professional Bodies to transfer.

26. Mitigating circumstances justifying a transfer under Regulations 23 and 25 (above) include the following:

- (ii) serious financial hardship, which necessitates the transfer;
- (iii) illness or a disability of a nature which necessitates the transfer;
- (iv) illness or disability of a dependant for whom the student is the primary carer, which necessitates the transfer; or
- (v) a significant change in the student's circumstances, which is sufficiently beyond the control of the student and which necessitates the transfer.

27. Procedure

If the University wishes to admit a transferring student, it must obtain the permission of the Professional Bodies before it may admit the student onto the Graduate Diploma in Law. The University must provide the complete academic profile of the student, including details of the assessments, which the transferring student has successfully completed and for which the University intends to give credit; and details of those subjects, which the student will be required to complete at the University in order to be awarded the Graduate Diploma in Law. In addition, the University must provide details of the mitigating circumstances, which justify the student's transfer.

28. Where a student was previously admitted onto a Graduate Diploma in Law but failed to complete the course, that student may only be admitted to a Graduate Diploma in Law provided that the student:

- (i) has formally withdrawn from the course on which they were originally enrolled (i.e. surrendered any rights to "resits" at the first institution); and
- (ii) applies to enrol on the course in the normal way; and
- (iii) receives no credit for any assessment passed on the first course; and
- (iv) will be treated as a new student and assessed in the normal way [i.e. be entitled to three attempts at each assessment]; and
- (v) is required to attend in the same manner as other students on that course.

29. Assessment Offences

Any allegation of assessment offences committed by a student shall be dealt with in accordance with the Current Academic Ordinances and Regulations of the University. If any allegation is found to be proven, and the offence has a bearing upon the character and suitability of the student to become a barrister or solicitor, the matter will be reported to the Professional Bodies. This may result in further penalties being imposed including denial of entry to the relevant profession.

30. Final Award

Students must have studied and completed at least 50% of the Graduate Diploma in Law at the University to obtain a Graduate Diploma in law. Students who have studied less than 50% of the Graduate Diploma in Law at the university will be awarded Institutional Credits.

31. Appeals

These regulations are subject to the appeals procedure of the University.

32. Copies of Regulations

A copy of these regulations must be given to each student on a Graduate Diploma in Law on enrolment or made available to them as soon as practicable thereafter.
