

Welcome!

Educational Partnerships Division (EPD) is delighted to welcome you as a member of the De Montfort University (DMU) student community. This information pack has been compiled to provide you with information and resources to help you make the most of your time as a DMU student at one of our partner colleges or institutions.

The pack contains all the essential guides and leaflets about the University in one place, which you can refer to throughout the year, as and when you need to.

In your pack you will find:

- ☐ Athens
- ☐ Blackboard
- ☐ MyDMU and Student e-mail
- ☐ DMU Libraries
- ☐ Student Voice
- ☐ Higher Education Assignment Toolkit (HEAT)
- ☐ The ASK Student Handbook
- ☐ The De Montfort Students' Union Handbook
- ☐ DMU USB Resource card

Don't forget to check out the Educational Partnerships section of the DMU website, where you will find copies of all the documents in your pack, latest news and events, information on other areas of the university relevant to you, such as De Montfort Students' Union and much more information about how you can make the most of your time at DMU.

De Montfort University (DMU)

DMU is a dynamic organisation, formed from a diverse range of specialist institutions. Its long history of excellent teaching, learning and research is founded in the technical and trade education of the late 19th Century. The name itself is associated with Simon De Montfort, Earl of Leicester, a distinguished figure in English history and widely credited with establishing the first parliament in 1265.

De Montfort University's campus is in Leicester City. The University has special arrangements with more than 80 universities and colleges in over 25 countries. It has approximately 21,000 students, 3,000 staff and an annual turnover in the region of £133 million.

Educational Partnerships Division (EPD)

EPD are a department based in Academic Registry in DMU. The role of EPD is to manage the University's UK collaborative partnerships. EPD works in conjunction with the faculties at DMU and your college to provide you with the best student experience possible.
