

Using an Enquiry Based Learning Tool to Encourage Student Engagement

DMU Teaching & Learning Conference 2019

Facilitators:

Darren Sparkes, Associate Professor, De Montfort University Matt Davies, Senior Teaching Fellow, Aston University Neil Young, Senior Lecturer, De Montfort University

Domestic robot manufacturing business in 2031.

You work as Board of Directors.

The Accounting BISSIM Simulation

Business operates in a simulated competitive market place.

Facilitator inputs decisions into software.Software produces annual business results.

2031 Decisions (Read pages 1 & 2 plus 2030 results)

Production Schedule

• Current factory capacity = 1,600 Robots

Wages/Salaries

- Total 155 employees (125 production staff)
- Average remuneration = W$10,000pa

Retail Price

- Currently retailers sell at W$5,000 per robot
- Trade discount = 20%
- You receive W$4,000 per robot

2032 Decisions (Read pages 3 & 4 plus 2031 results)

The Process

Decisions: Flexible and customisable Results: Adjusted to reflect decisions

Specially created class-based activities, customisable: Financial Accounting, Management Accounting, Financial Management Review Results: Accounting & Finance Tasks

Domestic robot manufacturing business in 2031.

You work as Board of Directors.

The Accounting BISSIM Simulation

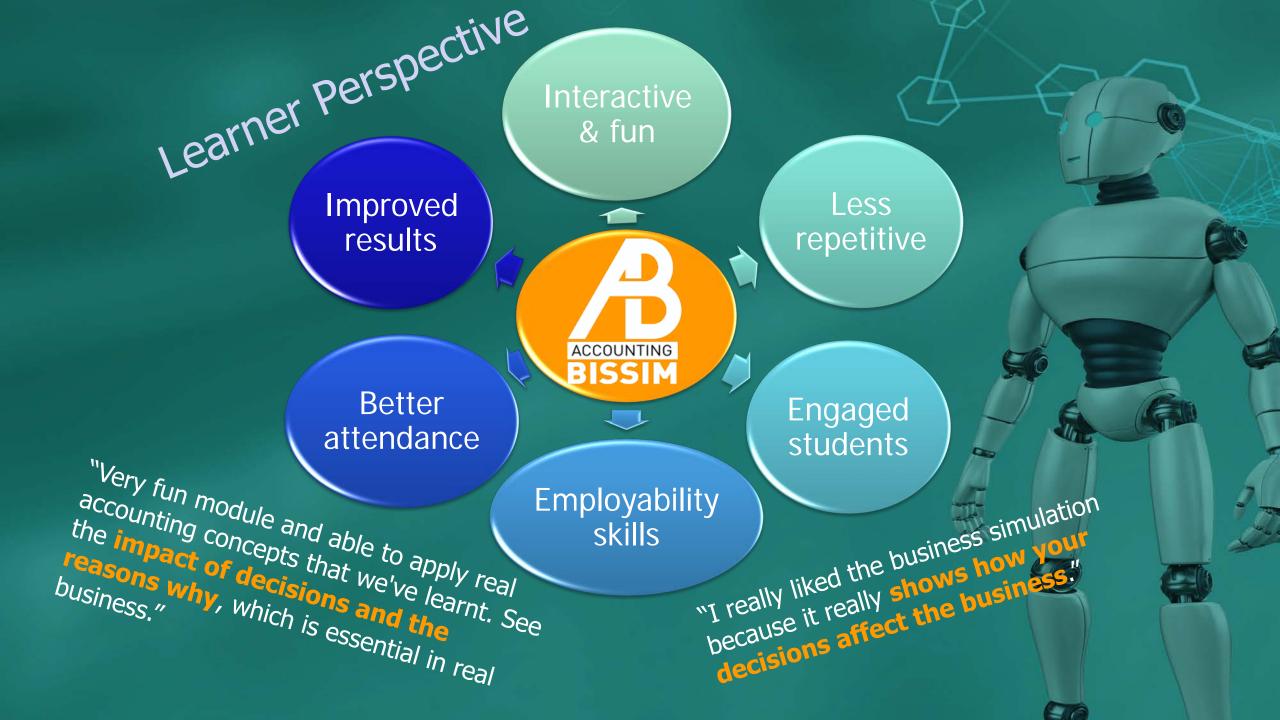

Business operates in a simulated competitive market place.

Facilitator inputs decisions into software.

Software produces annual business results.

SUCCESS = A long-term sustainable business

Using an Enquiry Based Learning Tool to Encourage Student Engagement

DMU Teaching & Learning Conference 2019

Facilitators:

Darren Sparkes, Associate Professor, De Montfort University Matt Davies, Senior Teaching Fellow, Aston University Neil Young, Senior Lecturer, De Montfort University