

Portfolio Advice

Fine Art BA (Hons)

Why do we ask for a portfolio?

We look at portfolios as part of our selection process as some of our courses need specialist skills. Seeing your portfolio gives us an idea of your skills and helps us understand if you will enjoy studying with us and to make sure you are choosing the right course for you.

A good portfolio should contain quality work: it's not about quantity. Be selective about what to include and avoid repetition, we would recommend 15 to 25 pieces. Ensure that your work is clearly laid out and easy to look through.

What are we looking for?

- A passion for the subject and evidence of engagement with contemporary fine art practice
- Creative thinking and an inquisitive mind
- Innovative thinking
- Drawing skills – in the broadest sense
- How you generate and develop your ideas
- Your experimental approach to handling and developing materials
- Your potential to learn and have ambitions for your own future, along with showing your creativity and imagination

What should a portfolio contain?

Drawing

- Your sketchbook(s) and portfolio need to demonstrate a good level of drawing through use of different media
- Show your drawing ability through relevant still life, life drawing, initial doodles, design drawing and drawing work relevant to fine art practice
- Include a range of approaches such as mark making and expressive using a variety of media for example paint, pencil, markers ink

Sketchbooks

- Sketchbooks vary in structure and content according to your practice, we like to see how you generate ideas, experiment and develop them visually. They will show us how you approach a project, as well as evidence of the subject matter that inspires you
- You should include primary and secondary research source material, such as exhibition visits, study trips abroad, artists' inspiration and own interests

- Include visual references to artists and designers that show your interests in the wider issues of fine art practice

Projects

- We want to see how you develop an idea and how you research and respond to a project brief. Show evidence of a project in your portfolio that demonstrates creativity, a deep involvement in your work and your conclusion or final idea
- Include a range of work this could be 2D, 3D, lens and digital work, printmaking and drawing
- This could be any art or design project (either as part of your course or an independent project)
- Our course is about independent self-directed study. Your portfolio should reflect a desire to pursue this, it shows you can work independently without being driven by a brief or a deadline

Written work

- Please bring an essay or a recent example of writing as evidence of your writing ability
- Although this is a practice-based degree, there are elements of written work required as part of the curriculum. For example, you need to contextualise your work within contemporary fine art practice
