10.4 Neither DMEL nor the University's employees or agents shall be liable for any damage or loss to property, valuables or money of whatever description unless such loss or damage is caused by the negligent act of one of DMEL's or the University's agents or employees.

10.5 Any damage caused by Attendees must be immediately reported to DMEL. The Client will be invoiced separately for such damages where appropriate.

10.6 Within two working days after the expiry of the Booking Period DMEL shall in its discretion carry out a full inspection of the premises used in connection with the Booking. In the event that any damage is discovered DMEL will provide You with an invoice containing the amount required to repair any damage caused or replace any damaged items and You shall pay such amount to DMEL within 30 days of such invoice

10.7 Any item left on the University's premises after the expiry of the Booking Period shall be disposed of if in the reasonable opinion of DMEL it is of little or no value.

10.8 Any item left on the University's premises after the expiry of the Booking Period which appears to be of value will be stored in the University's security office and kept for a reasonable amount of time for You to collect 3 following which it will be disposed of. If You require the item to be returned to You, You will be responsible for the associated costs of doing so.

11. Evacuation

11.1 You must ensure safe evacuation of the Venue and premises by all Attendees in the event of a fire alarm or other safety alert.

11.2 The University's fire regulations and evacuation procedures are prominently displayed in all buildings and must be read and complied with by all Attendees.

11.3 It is the responsibility of the Client to ensure that the emergency evacuation procedures are brought to the attention of all Attendees prior to the start of the Event.

12. Code of Conduct

12.1 You will ensure that the Event is conducted in an orderly fashion without causing a nuisance. You must ensure that no activities are undertaken which may bring DMEL or the University into disrepute.

12.2 Verbal and physical abuse to any DMU employee or students will not be tolerated under any circumstances.

12.3 You must adhere to the Universities and DMEL's policies, processes and procedures. Further details available on request.

12.4 You must comply with all reasonable instructions from DMEL.

12.5 Attendees are not permitted to interfere with any fire safety equipment including but not limited to smoke detectors, fire alarms and fire extinguishers, fire safety blankets and break glass call points.

12.6 Attendees and Staff are not permitted to interfere with any locking/door entry mechanisms inside the Accommodation.

12.7 DMEL reserve the right to exclude any Attendee from any part or whole of the University campus by providing The Client with 24 hours' notice where: A) the security or safety of University Staff or Students is compromised; and/or B) the behaviour of the Attendee is in DMEL's reasonable opinion considered to be unacceptable. Under such circumstances the Attendee will leave the University at their own cost and it will be the responsibility of the Client to make all necessary travel and accommodation arrangements in connection with their departure.

12.8 No smoking (including e cigarettes) is permitted inside or within 10 metres of University buildings.

12.9 The Client shall ensure that no prohibited items including weapons or replica weapons are brought to the Event or onto the University Premises at any time during the booking.

12.10 No animals (except for assistance dogs) are permitted inside the University buildings.

13. Safeguarding Policy

13.1 You are responsible for ensuring that all necessary safeguarding measures are in place for Events with Attendees under the age of 18 years and that the appropriate consent has been obtained from the parent, guardian or carer for such Attendees prior to the event (which can be evidenced on request).

13.2 You are responsible for ensuring that all staff and volunteers have completed the appropriate checks to permit them to work with children, in keeping with the guidance provided by the Disclosure and Barring Service.

13.3 You should ensure that everyone connected with the Event complies with the University's safeguarding policy, a copy of which can be sent upon request.

13.4 You must have your own safeguarding arrangements in place that support the University's safeguarding policy and evidence must be supplied to DMEL in advance of signing the Booking Agreement.

13.5 You must complete a signed declaration in relation to clause

13.4 in advance of the Event.

13.6 You are responsible for ensuring that all activities involving children and young people have more than one adult present.

13.7 Where children of visitors are present at the Event, they remain the responsibility of their parent/guardian or those acting in loco parentis to ensure their safety and wellbeing at all times.

13.8 For activities that are restricted to attendees over the age of 18, You shall ensure that the ID and date of birth for all attendees are checked prior to admittance. You shall be responsible for ensuring that no one under the age of 18 is admitted.

13.8 For the avoidance of doubt DMEL will take reasonable endeavours to ensure that children under the age of 18 are safe whilst on the University campus but neither DMEL nor the University accepts any liability for providing a safe environment for such individuals. Such liability remains with the Client at all times.

14. Health and Safety

14.1 The Client shall provide DMEL with a full risk assessment and any other relevant health and safety documentation reasonably requested by DMEL prior to the start of the Event.

14.2 DMEL reserves the right to refuse admission to University premises where the Client fails to provide the risk assessment and/or other health and safety documentation requested.

14.3 It is the responsibility of the Client to ensure all relevant health & safety information is brought to the attention of all Attendees.

14.4 You are responsible for ensuring that the maximum occupancy figures for the rooms occupied are not exceeded. We reserve the right to stop the Event if the maximum occupancy figures are exceeded.

14.5 The Client shall report any safety issues, accidents and/or incidents that occur during the Event to either the External Bookings Administrator or a member of the DMU Security Team as soon as is reasonably possible.

14.6 The Client shall provide full details of such safety issues, accidents and/or incidents and any Attendees involved including full name, address, contact number, date of birth, and any other information that is reasonably requested.

15. Licensing

15.1 You will be responsible for compliance with all licencing regulations relating to the Event and will ensure all appropriate licences including, but not limited to, Premises Licences, Temporary Event Notices, Street Trading Consents, and Performing Rights Society Licences are in place before the Event.

16. Insurance and Indemnity

16.1 You must hold sufficient Public Liability insurance for your Event.

16.2 You must ensure any third party suppliers connected to your Event also have sufficient Public Liability insurance.

16.3 We may request evidence of Public Liability insurance prior to the Event and, upon request; you must provide the same within a reasonable period for our approval.

16.4 We reserve the right to refuse to accept any booking if evidence of the public liability insurance cover is not acceptable.

16.5 You shall be fully responsible for the supervision and behaviour of all staff and Attendees at all times during the Booking Period and You shall indemnify DMEL in full for any damage, loss, liability or expenses suffered or incurred by DMEL or by any other person arising directly indirectly or in any manner as a result of the Booking.

17. Liability

17.1 Subject to clause

17.2 Below DMEL will not incur any liability of any kind or nature for any damage, loss, liability or expenses suffered or incurred by You, your staff or the Attendees or by any other person arising directly or indirectly as a result of the Booking.

17.2 Nothing in these terms and conditions shall operate to exclude or limit either party's liability for death or personal injury.

18. General

18.1 Neither DMEL nor the University endorses or supports the programme and/or content of external Events held upon its premises.

18.2 You must ensure that no activities are undertaken during the Event which may bring DMEL or the University into disrepute.

18.3 You must ensure that the Event adheres to the University's Freedom of speech and academic freedom within De Montfort University Code of Practice.

18.4 Rooms should not be booked or arranged in such a way that imposes gender segregation. There are some exceptions, including for acts of collective religious worship, which must be agreed in writing by DMEL in advance of the Booking.

18.5 DMEL reserve the right to terminate any activity deemed inappropriate or may bring DMEL or the University into disrepute immediately. DMEL shall have no liability for abortive costs incurred by the Client as a result of such termination.

18.6 You may not use the crest or any part of the University name or logo without the University's prior written permission.

18.7 You must obtain prior permission for all photographs, filming and video-taping within University premises.

18.8 DMEL reserve the right to photograph and/or otherwise capture images from the Event for use in the university prospectus, course brochures or other publicity material.

18.9 Nothing shall be fixed to the floors, walls, ceilings or any other internal or external surface of the premises by means of nails, screws, drawing pins, blue tack, glue or any other means unless agreed prior to the function.

19. Data Protection Act and Freedom of Information

19.1 We will retain your data in order to deliver the services You have booked. We will not discuss your booking or pass details to any third party unless required to do so by law or at your request.

19.2 You acknowledge that DMEL may be subject to the requirements of the Freedom of Information Act and shall assist and cooperate with DMEL to enable DMEL to meet its obligations under this legislation

20. Force Majeure

20.1 Neither party shall have any liability or be deemed to be in breach of these terms and conditions for any delays or failures in performance which result from circumstances beyond the reasonable control of the affected party including but not limited to fire, flood and other natural disasters.

21. Third Party Rights

21.1 It is not intended that a third party should have the right to enforce the obligations contained in these terms and conditions pursuant to the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999

22. Assignment

22.1 This Booking is personal to you and cannot be assigned to a third party without the prior written consent of DMEL. 5

23. Law

23.1 You will be responsible for compliance with all legislation, rules and regulations, etc. relating to the Booking. I acknowledge that I have read and received a copy of the terms and conditions and agree to abide by them
