

TERMS & CONDITIONS

De Montfort University Summer School Programme 2026

The DMU Summer School Experience

De Montfort University (DMU) Summer School Programme is offered through the Global Partnerships Unit and is designed to be interactive, fun and engaging. It combines learning and skills sessions with visits, as well as social and cultural field trips. The Programme runs within the UK. Our Programme is generally 10 days long and runs during summer for the period indicated.

Who May Apply?

Applications for the Programme is open to all students studying on a DMU Programme at one of DMU TNE Partner Institutes. In order to apply to the Programme, you must be aged 18 or above by the time that the Programme starts. Eligibility criteria on the Programme is dependent on your registration at one of the DMU Partner Institutes. Details of any additional specific eligibility criteria for each Summer School is communicated directly to the DMU Partner Institute.

How to Apply

You may apply for a place on the Programme by completing the Registration as defined by your Institute (ie, DMU's Partner Institute) by the deadline specified. Upon payment of the Summer School Fees deposit ("the Deposit") paid through the DMU Online Store, you will receive a confirmation email to confirm the status of your application.

Once availability and eligibility is verified by your Institute to the DMU Summer Schools Team, an Offer Letter will be issued to all participants, which will be sent to you and your Institute staff, by DMU.

By applying for the Programme, you accept these Terms and Conditions and agree to make payment of the balance of the Summer School Programme fee ("the Balance") by the deadline specified by DMU. See the Payment provisions below.

In the event that the demand for the Programme exceeds the number of places available, your Institute, will be responsible for the selection process, which involves selecting applicants on a first come first serve basis, against the number of places allocated to your Institute by DMU.

Registration

Successful participants will receive their Confirmation of Acceptance letter within 10 business days after DMU receives confirmation of student information, from the Partner Institute.

Summer School Fees 2026

The Summer School Fees are published by DMU Summer School's team and shared with each Partner Institute.

The Fee that is stated will apply and is fixed for Participants starting on the 2026 DMU Summer School Programme. The University may increase the fee for each subsequent running of the Summer School, therefore, please check with your Institute for information on fees for your Summer School start date.

What's included in the Summer School Fee?

The Summer School Fee of £450 is inclusive of:

- Welcome and Farewell evening events;
- Breakfast voucher for days on campus
- Taster lecture sessions and workshops on the Programme;
- Planned social events and field trips as part of the Programme (*see exclusions of entry fees for specific visits);
- Visits to industry or local organisation as part of the Programme;
- A Certificate of Participation in the DMU Summer School Programme (non-credit bearing).
- Students will be based at the DMU Leicester campus but have the opportunity to visit DMU London campus.

What's not included in the Summer School Fee?

The following is not included in the Summer School Fee and these additional costs must be incurred by the participant - DMU has no liability whatsoever for these additional costs (this list is not exhaustive):

- Specific accommodation based on university campus with availability for the dates of the Summer School will be provided to your Institute; for participants to book and pay.
- Flights to and from the United Kingdom;
- Airport transfers
- Missed flights
- Delayed flights
- Alternate flights
- Any visa related costs for entry to the United Kingdom
- Personal insurance such as travel/medical or insurance related to sports activities you may participate in during your stay;
- Other travel costs for personal visits
- *Entry fees for recreational venues visited by students during the London Trip
- Food and beverages (save for the set breakfast included in the Programme Fee above);

Other costs incurred and travel arrangements

You should not book flights, pay for visas or incur any other costs related to the Programme until you have received a Confirmation of Acceptance letter from DMU. For the avoidance of doubt, DMU shall not be responsible for any costs incurred by you where your application is subsequently not accepted.

Before registering for the Summer School, participants are responsible for ensuring that they have sufficient funds or income to cover; Summer School fees, accommodation fees and living expenses.

Insurance

You are responsible for and must ensure that you have appropriate travel insurance in place whilst participating in the Summer School Programme.

Visas

You are responsible for ensuring that you have the appropriate visa to enter the UK (Standard Visitor Visa for UK). If you do not have the correct visa, you will not be able to participate in the Programme.

DMU reserves the right to refuse admission to anybody who arrives later than the start date of the Programme and will inform the Home Office of students failing to join the Summer School.

Please be aware that due to changes in visa requirements, visas may take slightly longer than anticipated so ensure that the application is started as soon as possible.

A valid passport with an expiry date of at least 6 months is required in order to enter the UK. Further information can be found on the UKBA website.

Payments

The Summer School Fee must be paid via the DMU Online Store unless agreed otherwise with your Institute, before an Offer Letter can be issued. Delays in payment may result in the participant losing their place on the Summer School.

Payment should be made in two parts by the deadline dates:

Payment	Deadline date
£225 (Deposit) – non-refundable	9 February 2026
£225 (remaining Balance)	By 30 March 2026

Cancellations

Once a participant has received a Confirmation of Acceptance for Summer School letter from DMU (and has paid their £225 deposit, and the payment has been cleared and received), the following cancellation charges apply.

July 2026 Summer School attendance cancellation charges
Application Deadline	9 February 2026
100% Refund (on the Deposit)	26 February 2026. The Cancellation Notice must be received by the Partner Institute and DMU in writing by this date.
0% Refund (on the Deposit)	27 February 2026 onwards
100% Refund (on the remaining Balance)	The Cancellation Notice must be received at least 40 days prior to the Programme commencing (i.e., by 10 June 2026).
0% Refund	If the Cancellation Notice is received within 39 days prior to the Programme commencing (i.e., 11 June 2026) or after the Programme has commenced.

The cancellation needs to be communicated in writing by the person that booked the course (the “Cancellation Notice”) addressed to your Institute (DMU’s Partner Institute) and to the DMU Summer Schools team directly. Written communication of the cancellation including the reason must be sent. This includes cancellation in case of illness.

Refunds

DMU may choose to refund the Summer School Fee if your visa application is rejected or you have not received a decision on your application by the Summer School commencement date.

You must send proof of having started the visa application as soon as possible (3 months prior to your date of travel as per UKVI regulations) and/or the visa application rejection to your Institute contact and the DMU Summer Schools team within 40 days prior to the programme starting (i.e., 10 June 2026).

Note further information in sections below. The maximum liability in any event for DMU will be £450, DMU will not be liable for any other associated costs whatsoever.

Attendance

DMU Summer School will issue a certificate of participation to all students attending a minimum of 80% of the sessions.

Conduct

Participants agree to abide by the rules stipulated by Your Institute and DMU’s Regulations while in attendance at the Summer School. Inappropriate conduct includes illegal activity or behavior that deliberately disrupts the learning environment or damages De Montfort University property, accommodation or the property of fellow participants. Participants in breach of this conduct may be given a warning or expelled from the Summer School, and will not be issued a refund. De Montfort University may also withhold the Participant's certificate of participation.

STUDENT'S OBLIGATIONS

The Student undertakes:

1. To use their reasonable endeavors to participate fully in the DMU Summer School experience to abide by the rules and regulations of the Institutes and not do anything which may bring the University and/or the DMU Partner Institute into disrepute.
2. To abide by the University's Code of Conduct as specified 'Student Conduct'
3. To adhere to the Trip Leader's authority when undertaking the DMU Summer School and accept that the Trip Leader(s) have the authority to cancel with immediate effect the DMU Summer School experience if the Student is not following the itinerary or adhering to safety requirements and similar.
4. To carry out all lawful and proper tasks assigned to them in relation to the DMU Summer School experience promptly and carefully and to comply with all reasonable requests made of them by the University (as the host organisation) prior to, during and after the DMU Summer School experience.
5. To attend the pre-departure briefing sessions organized by your Institute, that relate to the DMU Summer School.
6. To be fully responsible for their own DMU Summer School experience expenses including timely payment of the deposits to your Institute as appropriate. To promptly pay all subsequent amounts your Institute ensuring adherence to any separately agreed payment plan.
7. To notify your Institute promptly of any matter which is likely to affect you undertaking of the DMU Summer School, including any special learning, health or medical requirements (including pregnancy). This information is required to ensure that consideration can be given to any 'reasonable adjustments' which may be required.
8. To notify your Institute for submission to the University of any disability, including physical and sensory impairments, 'hidden impairments' including mental health conditions, and long-term health conditions. This information is required to ensure that consideration can be given to any 'reasonable adjustments' which may be required.
9. To keep your Institute Contact informed of any changes or issues which arise in connection with the DMU Summer School.
10. To confirm travel plans to the Trip Leader prior to departure (where relevant).
11. To read in the full and comply with the requirements of your travel insurance information provided to ensure cover over the duration of the DMU Summer School. It should be noted that failure to declare a pre-existing health condition may invalidate the insurance. As such the student confirms that they have declared any pre-existing health conditions to their insurer.

12. To obtain their own visa and complete the required immigration formalities, including meeting all entry requirements for the UK (Standard Visitor Visa for UK) and return to your Country (including pandemic restriction requirements).
13. To inform your Institute, of any issues that may arise within a timely manner so that they can be addressed promptly by your Institute, accepting that issues raised post trip cannot necessarily be rectified.

The Student agrees and accepts that:

1. The University is not authorised to discuss details relating to the DMU Summer School with any third party outside of this Agreement, including parents, unless written consent by the Student has been submitted.
2. Their name and email address can be shared with other students who will be taking part in the same DMU Summer School by your Institute, at pre-departure stage.
3. They may be photographed, filmed, videoed or otherwise captured in image form during events organised and hosted by the University regarding DMU Summer School, and such images may be used in such publicity materials as the University and the Partner Institute deem appropriate. Additionally, the Student's name may be used in DMU Summer School marketing materials. Students will have an opportunity to opt out.
4. They will be acting as an ambassador for their Institute, as part of the DMU Summer School prior to, during and after the DMU Summer School, which may involve providing information about the experience for marketing purposes.
5. The University has a comprehensive Data Protection Policy which can be found on our website.

UNIVERSITY'S OBLIGATIONS

The University will:

1. Provide the Student with any support and information reasonably required for the completion of the DMU Summer School experience.
2. Make available to the Student relevant contacts to whom the Student can report and problems or queries whilst on the DMU Summer School.
3. Where relevant provide a University Contact who may act as a Trip Leader and accompany Students on a particular DMU Summer School.
4. Cancel with immediate effect the DMU Summer School and/or the Student's participation in it if the Student breaches the terms of this Agreement or breaches the University's rules and regulations, breaches local law and/or brings the University or the Partner Institute into disrepute., the student will bear all associated costs in this event.

5. Comply with the provisions of the Data Protection Act 2018 at all times during the DMU Summer School.

DURATION, TERMINATION AND CANCELLATION

1. The DMU Summer School experience will last for the period stated in this Student Agreement. No guarantee or warranty is given by the University that the DMU Summer School will meet all expectations of the Student.
2. The DMU Summer School shall terminate automatically if the Student ceases to be registered as a student with DMU's Partner Institute, becomes a debtor of the Institute/University or is suspended.
3. Early termination of the DMU Summer School by the student is only acceptable in medical extenuating circumstances confirmed by documentation.
4. The Student agrees and accepts that the Organisation may terminate the DMU Summer School and/or the Student's participation in it if the Student breaches the University's rules and regulations or breaches local law and/or brings the Organisation into disrepute. This includes any violations of pandemic restrictions or entry requirements set by the UK government, through fault of their own, (in which case DMU may terminate the experience immediately and the student will be fully liable for all costs incurred).
5. The Student has until 26 February 2026 (10 working days after the deposit deadline) to cancel this Agreement without liability by notifying their Institute, in writing of such cancellation.
6. In the event that the Student withdraws from the DMU Summer School the Student will be liable for all costs which have been incurred by the student, subject to clause above.
7. If the Student is no longer able to attend the DMU Summer School due to a clash with their academic studies they shall immediately notify their Institute. This cannot be cited as valid reason for refund of any payment made.
8. By signing this Student Agreement or by entering into an agreement with their Institute, the Student will remain liable for the costs incurred in the event of a cancellation.

LIABILITY

The University shall not be liable to the Student and/or any third party for any damage or loss, costs, expenses, general dissatisfaction with the DMU Summer School and/or other claims for compensation which arise out of the DMU Summer School experience and/or the Student's participation in this DMU Summer School, subject to clause below.

Nothing in this Agreement shall exclude, restrict or limit the liability of the University for death or personal injury caused by that party's negligence or for fraud.

GENERAL

1. This Agreement shall be governed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales and the University and the Student submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts.
2. Should any part, term or provision of this Agreement be found illegal or unenforceable, the validity of the remaining provisions shall not be affected.
3. Nothing in this Agreement or any negotiations shall be deemed to constitute a partnership between the parties or constitute one party as the agent of the other.
4. No variation of or amendment to this Agreement shall be binding unless made in writing and signed by all Parties to this Agreement.
5. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties in relation to its subject matter and supersedes all prior agreements understandings, communications, representations, warranties, undertakings and/or discussions whether oral or written between the parties other than representations made fraudulently.
6. No term of this Agreement shall be enforceable under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 by a third party.
7. The University shall not have any liability for any failure to perform or for any delay in the performance of any of its obligations under this Agreement caused by any factor beyond its reasonable control.

Disclaimer

DMU will make all reasonable efforts to deliver the Summer School Programme as described in the materials issued by DMU.

DMU reserves the right to vary arrangements in exceptional circumstances which are beyond the University's reasonable control.

In paying the Deposit, students agree to these terms and conditions.