	Department of Education that there are extenuating circumstances related to the adverse credit history). PLUS counselling is required to be completed via StudentAid.gov before a loan will be approved Private Loans	It is stated clearly on the US loans and Private loans pages that most students at DMU are eligible for federal loans and that these are normally much cheaper than private loans. Students/applicants considering a private educational loan in order to fund their studies should investigate their eligibility for Federal Student Aid. Please be aware Federal Student Aid funding may offer more favourable terms and conditions compared to those offered by private educational loans and the associated lenders.
	DMU does not have any current preferred lender arrangements with private lenders. Any such arrangements would be published here. Please note we are only aware of Sallie Mae and Earnest in terms of private lenders that are willing to work with us. This does not mean Sallie Mae or Earnest are preferred lenders, we are willing to work with any private lender students decide to use. The University does not solicit, extend or make private educational loans so is not subject to the Federal Reserve's regulations on private educational lenders.
