Save Reset

This is your credit countdown and shows how many credits you have left to select. When you select your modules, the number goes down by the value of the module.

Click on the module title to view the module description.

Click the tick box next to the module you want to select and it will move up to the top box of 'Booked Modules'. Please note that at this point your choice is not yet saved. Read the next page for more information

Module Bookings

When you've selected your modules, they will show in the Booked Modules box with a status of 'Pending Save'.

If you want to remove a selected module simply click on the tick box again to deselect it. Then select another module to replace it and click 'Save'.

The credit countdown will disappear when you've selected the correct number of optional modules. You will also see an alert notifying you that you have chosen the required number of credits.
