

I am Thomas: A journey

Facts about me

- I am a massive Doctor Who fan (Whovian), as well as Star Wars, Star Trek, Lord of the Rings and so much more
- I am also an actor who loves being on stage but I also enjoy writing and creating my own work
- I enjoy learning about history and the ancients of this world
- I am part of the LGBTQ+ community
- I was a senior prefect while at school

Going to University : Pandemic

---

- In 2020, I went to De Montfort University in Leicester to study Drama and Theatre BA (Hons)
- I did my entire first year online, which was the best and worst of times
- I was a drama student rep and then in my third year I became the Disabled Students Liberation Officer
- I partook in a DMU Global Trip to Utrecht in the Netherlands
- I became part of upReach – which helps students from low-income backgrounds get into professional work
- I won two awards - The upReach Ten – where I was one of the ten students to become a leader in my field and this year I won the Creative Industries Award

The future

---

- In September I graduated from De Montfort University
- I am now back in Doncaster until I plan my next career move
- While looking for work I am writing a play, making strides in my acting career and gaining experience to become a public speaker
- I am learning more about myself

“A HUGELY INTERESTING WATCH AND A GREAT WAY TO SEE THE STARS OF THE FUTURE IN THEIR INFANCY.”

BEYOND
CURTAIN

