20.2 Grounds for appeal are limited to those set out in the 'General Regulations and procedures Affecting Students' which also sets out the appeals process.

21. Academic Offences Panel

Academic Offences often involve plagiarism. The University considers such offences to be a serious issue and it is important that students make themselves aware of what is meant by plagiarism and how to avoid it. The regulation concerning Academic Offences for research degree students is outlined in the 'General Regulations and procedures Affecting Students'.

22. Induction and Training

All research degree students are required to attend a number of generic and discipline specific courses during his/her period of study. For further information students should consult the relevant Researcher Development Programme Handbook. Please contact the Graduate School Office to obtain a hard copy. The handbooks are also available on the website.

Students on the International PhD Programme must undertake all mandatory elements of the Researcher Development Programme which are available to them as defined in their Study Protocol document.
