

JUC PAC CONFERENCE 2021

*How Place Matters?
Leadership, Governance & Public Administration*

*Local Governance Research Centre (LGRC)
De Montfort University, 7-8 September 2021*

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

Conference Overview

Pre-Conference Monday 6 September	DAY 1 Tuesday 7 September		DAY 2 Wednesday 8 September
09:30-17:00 Annual Public Management and Administration Doctoral Workshop (online, programme tbc) Convenors: Dr Karin Bottom (PAC Chair) and Dayo Eseonu (VC for Doctoral Students)	09:30-10:00	Conference Opening & Welcome Address Prof. Katie Normington (Vice Chancellor, DMU) Steven Griggs, Arianna Giovannini and Alistair Jones (LGRC, DMU)		09:30-10:00	Welcome Address Prof. Jo Richardson (Associate Dean Research and Innovation, Faculty of Business and Law, DMU)
	10:00-11:15	The Frank Stacey Memorial Lecture Dr Nicola Headlam (Chief Economist and Head of Public Sector, Red Flag Alert) 'There's no future for England's dreaming: trial and error in the 'ungovernable North' Chair: Prof. Steven Griggs (LGRC, DMU)		10:00-11:15	Keynote Lecture Prof. John Tomaney (Professor of Urban and Regional Planning, Bartlett School of Planning, UCL) 'Levelling up and Left Behind Places' Chair: Dr Arianna Giovannini (LGRC, DMU)
	11:15-11:30	Refreshment Break		11:15-11:30	Refreshment Break
	11:30-13:00	Parallel Session 1		11:30-13:00	Parallel Session 4
	13:00-14:00	Lunch	Meet the Editors: Teaching Public Administration and Public Policy and Administration	13:00-14:00	Lunch
	14:00-15:30	Parallel Session 2		14:00-15:30	Parallel Session 5
	15:30-15:45	Refreshment Break		15:30-15:45	Refreshment Break
	15:45-17:15	Parallel Session 3		15:45-17:15	Parallel Session 6
				17:15	Closing conference remarks Steven Griggs, Arianna Giovannini and Alistair Jones (LGRC, DMU)
			17:30	PAC Executive

DAY 1 – TUESDAY 7 SEPTEMBER
PARALLEL SESSION 1 (11:30-13:00)

Place-making, leadership and identity in the North of England	Rethinking the environment in local politics	Roundtable: Local government responses to Covid-19: international perspectives	Territorial lobbying and multi-level governance
Georgina Blakeley and Brendan Evans (University of Huddersfield): Doing politics differently in Greater Manchester and the Liverpool City Region?	Peter Eckersley (Nottingham Trent University & Leibniz Institute) et al: Ranking local climate policy: assessing the mitigation and adaptation activities of 104 German cities	Filipe Teles, University of Aveiro, Portugal Simona Kukovič, University of Ljubljana, Slovenia Carmen Navarro, Autonomous University of Madrid, Spain	Dan Ziebarth (George Washington University): Local Lobbyists in the European Union
David Jeffery (University of Liverpool): The importance of ‘demos’ in local democracy: A case study of the Liverpool City Region	Anna Zachrisson et al (Umeå University): A Challenge to Transition Policies: How decisive is place attachment for the implementation and coordination of place-based policies?	Paula Russell, University College Dublin, Republic of Ireland	Oscar Moreno Corchete (University of Salamanca): The external action of local entities in Spain: from implementation to regulation
Stewart Arnold (University of Hull): Identity and devolution: the case of Yorkshire	Paul Omar and Russell Orr (DMU): Rus in Urbe: From Rome to the pop-up park of today		Cristina Ares (University of Santiago de Compostela): Currents, Waves and Tides: will places matter more to EU bodies after the pandemic?
Ryan Swift (University of Leeds): Placing the North of England
Chair: Arianna Giovannini (LGRC)	Chair: Steven Griggs (LGRC)	Chair: Alistair Jones (LGRC)	Chair: Mark Roberts (LGRC)

DAY 1 – TUESDAY 7 SEPTEMBER
PARALLEL SESSION 2 (14:00-15:30)

Regional and Territorial Politics	Reinvigorating Local Democracy	Roundtable: Equality, Diversity and Inclusion: Developing an agenda
Sean Kippin (University of Stirling) and Janice Morphet (UCL): Coordination, agenda-setting, and future planning: the role of Combined Authorities during the Covid-19 Pandemic	Jim Chandler (Sheffield Hallam) and Neil Barnett (Leeds Beckett): A scenario for 'bottom-up' discursive community democracy as a means of informing city, county and national liberal democracy	PAC EDI Special Interest Group
John Harrison (Loughborough University), Daniel Galland, (Aalborg University Copenhagen), and Mark Tewdwr-Jones (UCL): Planning Regional Futures	Alistair Clark (Newcastle University): Inequalities, Public Administration and the funding of elections
Tom Arnold, Sue Jarvis, Belinda Tyrell & Gloria Lanci (Heseltine Institute, University of Liverpool): Developing an asset-based approach to Building Back Better in Liverpool City Region	Pete Murphy, Peter Eckersley, Katarzyna Lakoma, Bernard Kofi Dom, Martin Jones (Nottingham Trent University): The future of Local Audit: local authority financial reporting and external audit in England after Redmond
	Ben Duke: Who Rules the Roost? The UK Localism Act 2011 Ten Years On: Democratic Legitimacy Tension between Lay or Citizen or Institutional Expertise
Chair: Arianna Giovannini (LGRC)	Chair: Jonathan Rose (LGRC)	Chair: Karin Bottom (PAC)

DAY 1 – TUESDAY 7 SEPTEMBER
PARALLEL SESSION 3 (15:45-17:15)

Policy Impact Panel: Can leadership research improve place-based governance?	Experimentalism in Place- Shaping: new ways of governing in political science? Part I: Experimental Place- Shaping of the City	Faith and Public Administration	Service Design, Service Disaster?
Robin Hambleton (Emeritus Professor of City Leadership, UWE) Janice Morphet (Visiting Professor. Bartlett School of Planning UCL) Audrey Sutton (Executive Director of Communities and Education, North Ayrshire Council)	Rachel Granger (LGRC, DMU): The Sharing City: Scaling-up from community experimentalism to the municipal level	Rory Shand (Manchester Metropolitan University), Steven Parker (LGRC, DMU) and Joyce Liddle (Northumbria): Faith in Public Administration: Communities, Development and Governance	Lucy Budd and Stephen Ison (LGRC, DMU): Transport Act 2000 Twenty Years On: A Role for Road User Charging and the Workplace Parking Levy
	Yu Qiao (Durham University): Collective Practicing and the Stakeholder in Heritage Area Management	Steve Parker (LGRC, DMU) and Lorraine Johnston (Northumbria): Belief in values, outcomes and processes: predictions in science, or just muddling through?	Bernard Kofi Dom, Peter Murphy and Martin Jones (Nottingham Trent University): Financial failure and corporate intervention at Northamptonshire County Council: A sorry saga not a surprise
	Dalia Mukhtar-Landgren (Lund University): The Governing Paradoxes of Experimental Governance	Amina Easat-Daas (DMU): Politics and Public Administration and Belgian Muslim Women: Opportunities and Obstacles	Muhammad Wahyudi (INLOGOV): The Impact of Public Participation on Audit Process: An Analysis of The Public Comment Mechanism at the Indonesia Supreme Audit Institution
	Bastian Lange (Leipzig): From flexible to situated geographies: conceptualizing innovation and experimental work processes	Jennifer Robinson (DMU): Exploring the value of faith to public administration through Cambridge Analytica
Chair: Arianna Giovannini (LRGC)	Chair: Rachel Granger (LGRC)	Chair: Joyce Liddle & Steve Parker	Chair: Stephen Ison (LGRC)

DAY 2 – WEDNESDAY 8 SEPTEMBER
PARALLEL SESSION 4 (11:30-13:00)

Beyond “new municipalism”: state-social movement relations towards state transformation?	Levelling Up Part I: Issues and Prospects	Place, Leadership and Governance Issues in Emergency Services	Roundtable: Teaching and Learning in Public Administration
Jonathan Davies (CURA, DMU): Municipalist strategies towards the state?	Joyce Liddle, John Shutt (Northumbria University) and Gareth Addidle (Teesside University): Opening Panel Introduction: An overview of the social and economic consequences of Levelling Up: Some issues to be addressed	Paresh Wankhade (Edge Hill University) and Peter Murphy (Nottingham Trent University): Future of Emergency Service Research	Alistair Jones (LGRC, DMU) Ros Lishman (DMU) John Diamond (public policy and professional practice consultant & co-editor of Teaching Public Administration)
Martina Locorotondo (CURA, DMU): Neo-municipalist Naples: a case study between the urban commons and the local government	Simon Bridge (Ulster University): Levelling Up – Is it the right cure?	Peter Murphy and Katarzyna Lakoma (Nottingham Trent University): Government’s proposals for reform of Fire and Rescue Services in England	Bruce McDonald (SC State University) Alistair McCulloch (University of Adelaide)
Adrian Bua (CURA, DMU): Entering the labyrinth: Galician municipalists in and against the state	Ananya Mukherjee (Cardiff University): Strong Local Institutions for levelling up: lessons from federal systems	Paresh Wankhade (Edge Hill University): Covid-19 and Ambulance Workers
Valeria Guarneros-Meza (CURA, DMU): Reviving the local state through the navigation of contradictions: Capulalpam de Mendez, Mexico	Jon Ord (University of St Mark & St John): Food poverty and youth work – A community response
Chair & Discussant: Adam Fishwick (CURA)	Chair: John Shutt & Gareth Addidle	Chair: Paresh Wankhade	Chair: Alistair Jones (LGRC)

DAY 2 – WEDNESDAY 8 SEPTEMBER
PARALLEL SESSION 5 (14:00-15:30)

Experimentalism in Place-Shaping: new ways of governing in political science? Part II: Techniques for Experimental Place-Sensing	Levelling Up Part II: place shaping, inequalities and resilience	The Politics of Place Leadership: with, in and against community	Theoretical & methodological approaches in public administration	Improving collaboration and fostering co-creation in public services: Findings from the COGOV Project
Carolina Carrasco Pizarro, José Gómez, Tamara Egger (Espacio Ludico): How to engage citizens in low-digitalized neighbourhoods during social distancing? CUBOX: a creative analog-digital solution for ludic interaction	Patrick Diamond (Queen Mary University) and Andrew Walker (LGiU): Twenty Years of Place-shaping strategies in English Governance	Simon Stevens (DMU): A panoptic public space and the street homeless	Steven Parker (LGRC, DMU), Victoria Cluley (Leicester Uni) and Zoe Radnor (university of Law): Dis/value in Public Service Delivery – Current Conceptualisations and Future Avenues for Exploration	Keith Shaw (Northumbria University): The COGOV project: overview, main findings, and implications for policy-makers and practitioners
Laura Parsons (LGRC, DMU): Community Participation in Food as Municipal Governance: Eliciting Techniques for Hidden Culture	Jack Newman (University of Surrey) et al: A Place-based System? Policy Responses to Place Based Inequalities	Linda-Marie Sundstrom and Mark Kling (Cal Baptist University, USA) Defund the Police or Comprehensive Compassion: Place-Based Governance Trends to Create Safety in the Civic Square	Melissa Hawkins and Max French (Northumbria University): Action-oriented research: a route to relevance for the social sciences	Eva Elliott and Martin Kitchener (Cardiff University): The Role of Community Organisations in Orchestrating Public Service Co-Creation: Lessons from a Welsh Case Study
Carl Quinn (Practice, Leicester): From the urban spectacles and visions to the mundane trust building: a what works model	Kate Broadhurst (Loughborough University) and Nicholas Gray (Teesside University): Region and City Resilience in times of crisis	Tayseer Khairy (Ain Shams University, Egypt): Towards Vibrant Places: Unfolding the Perceptions of Place-making based Leadership in Egypt	Michael Joseph (Brunel University): Higher Education Institutions and Innovation Governance: Technology Transfer and Commercialisation in Canadian Universities Stephane Revillet (University of Bourgogne): The leaders' place in the Westminster system	Brittney Regal and Sam van Elk (King's College London): Attempting co-creation in the cultural sector: lessons from London Edoardo Ongaro (The Open University): Bridging strategic management and co-creation for the improvement of public services
Chair: Rachel Granger (LGRC)	Chair: Joyce Liddle	Chair: Adrian Bua (LGRC)	Chair: Steven Parker (LGRC)	Chair: Rachel Ashworth Discussant: Nicolette van Gestel

DAY 2 – WEDNESDAY 8 SEPTEMBER
PARALLEL SESSION 6 (15:45-17:15)

A socially responsible Local State?	Mayors and Public leadership	Innovation Governance: a comparative perspective	The Politics of the Global South
Peter Eckersley (Nottingham Trent University & Leibniz Institute); Anthony Flynn (Cardiff University); Laurence Ferry (Durham University); Rutgers University); Katarzyna Lakoma (Nottingham Trent) Public procurement as a policy tool: Are UK councils increasingly favouring suppliers based in their regions?	Max Stafford (LGRC, DMU): 2021 Vision: The first 3 Mayors of London – lessons from the perspective of political leadership studies	Michael Joseph (Brunel University): Conundrums of UK Innovation Governance	Anesu Mirona (Africa University): The nexus between the establishment of an enabling environment and Local Economic Development in the City of Harare
Yunailis Salazar (Autonomous University of Barcelona, IGOP): Learning from (in)experience: New Municipalism and the implementation of socially responsible public procurement policy in Barcelona	Alex Marsh and David Sweeting (University of Bristol) Leadership, citizen participation and 'big P' politics in the smart city	Yuzhuo Cai (Tampere University) Shifting Policy and Systems of Innovation in Finland	Bariki Mwasaga (University of Perugia): Inter-governmental relations between central government and local government authorities in Tanzania
Temidayo Eseonu (University of Manchester): Rethinking knights, knaves and pawns: public responsiveness to racialised needs	Steven Griggs (De Montfort University) Discussant: Meeting the challenges of local leadership	Vesna Damjanovic and Veljko Jeremic (University of Belgrade, Serbia) Transitioning to Innovation: Emerging Policy and Systems in Serbia	Mayank Mishra (Jawaharlal Nehru University): Infrastructure as spatial imagery: Comprehending the political aesthetics of India's Central Vista Project
Chair: Valeria Guarneros-Mesa (LGRC)	Chair: Steven Griggs (LGRC)	Chair: Averil Horton	Chair: Mark Roberts (LGRC)