Payments

All payments as referred to as part of the online booking process must be completed. In accordance with the visa application process you must have made the relevant pre-arrival payments for accommodation. If there are any outstanding payments on arrival, which are required as an obligation of your accommodation contract, these must be paid prior to entering your accommodation otherwise the accommodation guarantee is invalidated.

Refunds

If circumstances beyond your control prevent you from travelling to the UK to study, or, if you fail your English language test or if your visa application is refused, the University will arrange a refund of your £250 Booking Payment (minus the £50 non-refundable administration fee) as well as any other advance rental payments which you have previously made towards your University-sourced accommodation.

This refund is conditional on you notifying the Accommodation Office by 5pm Tuesday 10th October 2017 that you will be unable to take up your accommodation.

To obtain a refund, you must email the Accommodation Office (accommodation@dmu.ac.uk) stating your case and providing appropriate evidence, such as notification of your visa refusal or other supporting evidence of exceptional circumstances.
